

Assignment:

1. Display List of Items

Add Dropdown button in your single page react application in order to Display the List of Items in Tabular format on click of selected dropdown button.

2. Order Form

Create a customer order form in your single page react application with required fields and on click submit button of form display the order details.

3. Navigation menu

Create Navigate Menu in your single page react application in order to display the Menu list and handle click events in React on menu and display the respective menu Items on click.

4. Real-time search

Add Search bar in your single page react application which take an id and on click of search button display the list of items belong to particular id.

Note: For the data you can create a simple json file and import in your react application.